

I do not want any changes made to the "no-call" laws I currently enjoy as a Wisconsin resident. As a person paying for my telephone service I should be allowed to choose who uses this telephone service, since it is something I pay for. I also pay additional fees to keep my name out of local telephone books and listings. It is my service and if I choose to be on the "no-call" list that should be honored. Thank you.-